ABOUT THE SPEAKER

A former attorney, educator and Nevada State Senator Lori Lipman-Brown became the first lobbyist representing the secular community in Washington D.C. last September.

Bias against nonbelievers is the last civil rights struggle in which blatant discrimination by politicians is viewed as acceptable behavior. Come hear how Lori plans to radically change that situation.

PLEASE NOTE: This talk is in addition to our regular January event featuring Diana Hull. Don't miss her speak about "California's Population Time Bomb", January 21 at 3 pm at Vista del Monte.
