

Community Law

Attorney James Gilliam is Deputy Executive Director of the ACLU of Southern California.

He will talk and answer questions about how laws like Cal.Prop.8, "Don't Ask, Don't Tell", and the federal "Defense Of Marriage Act" do not just affect lesbian women, gay men, bisexual and transgender people, but have profound effects on the lives of their "straight" friends and families too.

Topics may include:

- Marriage, Civil Unions, Domestic Partnerships, and the intrusion of governments into personal decisions about how people may live and love.
- Inheritance, adoption of children.
- Medical directives, hospital visitation, health insurance.
- Discrimination at work, hate crimes.
- Military service in defense of our nation.

Doors open 2:30pm, meeting starts 3pm Saturday, March 19th.
In the Live Oak Unitarian Meeting Hall, 820 North Fairview Ave.
Goleta. Free admission - optional $2 donations appreciated.

Presented by the Humanist Society of Santa Barbara and the Pacific Pride Foundation of Santa Barbara County.
