

Losing My Religion: How I Lost My Faith Reporting On Religion In America, with William Lobdell.

A nationally renowned journalist, he worked for 17 years at the Los Angeles Times and its sister newspapers in a variety of reporting and editing positions, including eight years on the religion beat at the L.A. Times.

He is now editor of the Fraud Discovery Institute, which investigates public companies and private enterprises suspected of fraudulent behavior. He has also been on the visiting faculty of the University of California, Irvine for 13 years.

Hosted by the Humanist Society of Santa Barbara

- On Saturday, September 18th, 2010
- 2:30pm doors open, 3pm meeting starts
- In the Patio Room at Vista del Monte, 3775 Modoc Road (Las Positas exit off 101, midway between UCSB & SBCC) in Santa Barbara.

Optional $2 student or $5 general donations would be appreciated. Information website or phone 805-689-2716.

<http://www.SantaBarbaraHumanists.org>